Susanne Stemmer : Under Water - the exhibition private view at Wide Painting Gallery Paris, the evening's guests on GoSee

Susanne Stemmer takes us with her to the weightless world of freedom and limitlessness with her UNDER WATER series.... It's a world in which we can take off our masks and finally be ourselves again.

You can see Susanne's large scale photographs until 30 November 2013 at Wide Painting Gallery in Paris (as reported by GoSee); they are available for purchase from the gallery and ARTSPER. GoSee presents a few pictures from the busy private view on 12 September.
